

The Society for the Relief of Poor Clergy

Grant Application

SRPC makes grants from its own funds and those of JFW Deacon's Mabledon Charity (on behalf of the Church Pastoral Aid Society). Applications are welcomed from, or on behalf of, evangelical clergy or lay workers of the Church of England or the Church in Wales, the Church of Ireland and the Scottish Episcopal Church, who are in need or in circumstances of hardship. It is a condition of the trust that applicants must be of an evangelical conviction. For further information visit the website <http://www.srpc-aid.com/ForApplicants>

Please briefly outline your Journey to Faith

SRPC is limited and regulated under the terms of its written aims and objectives, which have been approved by the Charity Commissioners. These state that the Trust may only make grants to Anglican Evangelical Clergy, The Trustees ask that all applicants assent to the CPAS Basis of Faith as an indication of their evangelical beliefs. Please read the Basis of Faith on our website (<https://www.srpc-aid.com>) and tick the box above if you are able to give your full assent to the statement.

Data Protection:

Please note that confidential information given to SRPC by individuals applying for grants, or supplying information in support of such applications, will be shared with the Trustees of SRPC to inform their decisions at their next meeting. Once a decision has been made and the applicant notified of the outcome, all confidential information, held either electronically or in hard copy, will be destroyed within 28 days of notification.

CONFIRMATION OF APPLICATION

The Trustees are obliged under the rules, and in accordance with the purpose of the funds, to restrict grants to those who identify themselves with the Evangelical tradition within the Church of England. Your signature will be taken as evidence that you understand this and confirm it as your position.
